Torrid Wilcox for Three Offenders.

One of the most scathing and sensational judgments ever given in a District Magistrate's court of Honolulu was that delivered orally yesterday afternoon by Judge Wilcox in passing sentence of four months' imprisonment at hard jabor on B. Hartman, N. G. Campion and Ben Gallagher, for assault and battery on Kawahi, an old, dignified looking native from the country districts of Kauai. Kawahi is a dandy in dress and manner and has made a stunning appearance on the streets of Fonolulu for the past week

The offense with which the three men were charged is that of mutilating the old man's gloves, destroying his headgear, half drowning him with mineral water from a siphon, setting fire to his clothes with firecrackers, and lastly, Hartman is said to have taken the old man's purse containing $33 and keeping both. All the incidents occurred in two Hotel street saloons and were witnessed by several people, among them being a barkeeper named Disney, a recent arrival here, who was directly charged by Judge Wilcox with having little regard for the truth, While the judge was castigating them the defendants flushed and paled alternately as they were being grilled on the judicial tosater. Each was allowed his freedom on appeal by putting up bail in the sum of $200.

Judge Wilcox evidently had his mind made up when the prosecution and defense rested their cases, and came directly to the point. He said:

"I don't need much argument from either of you gentlemen, for I have the evidence adduced before me. I don't think there are any extenuating circumstances in favor of Gallagher, as pointed out by the prosecution, for I think he was as guilty as the others. If a man stands up and lets a blackguard injure an old native with miserable, low-lived, dirty tricks, without making an attempt to stop him, he is as guilty as the others, and in this case the evidence shows that Gallagher laughed and clapped his hands and egged the others on. This case takes the cake. I can hardly believe my eyes | when I see before me three white men guilty of such an offense. Their skins cover up dirty carcasses. There was not a single gentleman in the crowd. It is the most scurvy trick to set fire to this old man's clothes that I have heard of in years. They also robbed him of his money. Disney, the barkeeper in a saloon, and a man who is supposed to protect his customers, says he has only been here a few weeks, but he does not seem to have learned to tell the truth at any time. His residence in Hawaii has not taught him how to be truthful. I believe he was an untruthful witness.

"I sentence each of you to four months' imprisonment at hard labor. I suppose you will appeal this case to the Circuit Court, and I hope you do. for I want them to hear a case like this. I will require bail in the sum of $200 each."

When the judge had finished, every eye in the room was directed toward the three convicted men. Disney also came in for his share and he soon made his way out of the court room. Just before the judge passed sentence Disney was on the stand and told a story which seemed to differ materially from what he had told Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth on Thursday morning last, and the officer challenged him to deny it under his oath as a witness, which Disney did. The material points of difference were that on the stand Disney said that the old native came into on Thursday morning Disney stated to him in the presence of several witnesses that the umbrella was sticking out of the old man's coat collar. There were also other differences and the deputy and Disney had a spirited wordy set-to for a few minutes. The deputy was so wrought up over the contradictory statements that it was with Commission Merchants difficulty that he made his closing argument, but he scathingly denounced

On Wednesday afternoon Kawahi said he me; the three men and accompanied them to a saloon. They joked with him, and he met them half way. not understanding what they said, for he speaks only the Hawaiian language. Then he found that they were "playing horse" with him. They jostled him from one to the other and tried to make a "monkey" of him. He went out to get shaved and left' some of his belongings behind, and when he returned found they had cut his gloves, torn his hat and one of them was breaking his umbrella. Then matters went from bad to worse. He said that Hartman took his purse from his vest pocket. He did not make an outery at the time, hoping to "pacify" the man and the rest until they saw fit to return him his money. They continually treated him with indignity. "I am only a countryman and don't know city ways, and did not know what to do," said he. "The man behind the bar was just as bad as the rest, for brella and shoved it down my back and Principal Office: Corner Fort and said I looked better that way. Finally one of them (and he pointed at Hartman) got some firecrackers and but them on my back and lighted them. They burned by clothes and then wet me with mineral water from a syphon. Then I ran across the street to the lel stand and asked what I should do. My clothes were almost burned off me.' The policeman took the old native to the station thinking he was demented, and kept him there over night. The next day the defendants were arrested. Captain Parker states that an officer found the purse in Hartman's room bu it was empty. Disney, the barkeeper, this Island. ## MEN! DO YOU?

Do you want to be strong? Do you want to fe-I the vim, the snap and fire of vigor? Do you want courage, energy b and ambition to support you in your cares and troubles?

I have devoted my life to the deve opment of manly and womanly vigor. I ve made a great success. My methods are approved by the greatest doctors and copied.

I have proven that electricity is the basis of all animal life and that "weak men," dyspeptics, rheumatics, sufferers from lost energy, weak kidn-ys, pains in the back, head, chest and shoulders, from vericoceie, and its allied weaknesses, etc., are weak in electricity. My klectric Belt restores this life in a few weeks and cures every time. If it fails I ask no pay. Describe your case to me and if I say I can cure you I will guarantee Drugs won't restore your strength. They only stimulate. If you have to take a stimulant take whisky. Taken in moderation it does less harm than the others. "Every sign of pain and weakness has disappeared. I appreciate what your Belt has done for me," writes J. Schwarz Coleridge, Trinity county, Cal.

I will gladly send you my book on this subject. It has 82 pages of meat to people who want more "fire." Scaled, free.

I take imitations of my Belt in trade, just to rhow how much better mine is. Consultation free. DR. M. G McLAUGHLIN. 906 MARKET STREET, CORNER KEARNY, SAN FRANCISCO.
